

Rob Forget football. There's a ghost in the room with us!

Lee Huh? Look, I may be dreaming – but I think you're having a nightmare.

Rob No I'm not. I'm wide awake. There is a ghost – and he's at the end of my bed.

Lee Do you mean that bloke who's all dressed up like someone from the olden days?

Rob So you can see him.

Lee Sort of. I can certainly see right through him.

Rob That proves he's a ghost.

Lee Right. But ghosts are supposed to be scary.

How to be a knight

First you have to go to knight school.

*If your last name is Render, change it!
You'll never win a battle if you're called Sir Render!*

It's dark inside a castle so take a knight-light with you.

Make sure you always have a tin opener handy in case you get stuck in your suit of armour.

When you choose your horse make sure it's well behaved and not a knight mare.

Don't fall into the moat wearing your armour. If you do, everyone will call you 'Rusty'.

Never forget that dragons sleep during the day. They do this so they can fight knights.

The best place to meet other knights is in a knight club.

*Get used to your mum saying,
"Nighty knight," when you go to bed.*
