

Jo We could do it at my house.
My mum is doing the washing today.

Izzie Has she got some really big knickers?

Jo No, but I can get some from my Gran. She won't mind.

The Magic Mates have a plan to catch a thief!

Magic Mates in Knicker Shocker Glory!

Izzie and Jo set a trap to catch the Big Knickers
Thief. They help
Jo's mum to do the washing.
Then they help her to peg it out on the washing line.

Jo I've got my camera ready.

Jo Look! The black-and-white cat has come back. Let's see what she does.

The black-and-white cat has a big round tummy. It looks like she is having kittens. The cat jumps up and pulls another pair of big knickers off the washing line and runs away with them.

Jo Wow! Did you see that! And I got a photo of it, too. We've caught the Big Knickers Thief red-handed ... or red-pawed.

Izzie I'm glad your plan worked, but I'm worried about that cat. I don't think she's got any owners. We must help her.
