Dwayne's mum's cook book has lots of tasty recipes. Here's one of Dwayne and Gummy's favourites.

Marshmallow Crunch

- Melt 3 tablespoons of margarine in a non-stick pan.
- Add a bag of marshmallows.
- Stir over medium heat until the marshmallows have completely melted.
- Add 6 cups of breakfast cereal and mix together well.
- Pour mixture into pan.
- Spread and flatten the mixture.
- Cut into squares when cool.
- Enjoy!

1 A recipe uses imperative (bossy) verbs to tell you how to make it. For example: 'Melt 3 tablespoons of margarine in a non-stick pan.'

Underline the other imperative verbs in the Marshmallow Crunch recipe.

2 Gummy is a messy eater. Use imperative verbs to complete these instructions to Gummy on how to eat the Marshmallow Crunch without spraying crumbs everywhere.

- _____ your mouth.
- _____ the Marshmallow Crunch in your mouth.
- _____ your mouth before you chew.

Challenge!

A new pizza parlour has opened in town. It's giving away free pizza but Gummy doesn't know where it is. Write instructions telling him how he can find it. These imperative verbs may help you: go, turn, take, leave, exit.

1 In The Great Pancake Day Race, Harry, Barry, Gary and Larry tried to beat Gummy by cheating. Scan the book and find out where on the course the cheats were hiding.

The second cheat was hiding in _____

The third cheat was hiding behind _____

2 When Gummy told his mum about the Great Pancake Day Race he was so excited that he got the events muddled up. Help him out by putting a number by each event, to show the order they happened in.

I won the Great Pancake Day Race.

I practised tossing pancakes.

I ate a pile of free pancakes.

Dwayne found out Harry was cheating.

Challenge!

Imagine you are Gummy's trainer. Write down the things you would do to help him prepare for the big race. Put them under different headings – for example, Fitness, Diet, Kit and Special Training.
